CITY COUNCIL.

The semi-monthly meeting of the City Council last night was of short duration. But little business was transacted and that of minor importance. Most of the members wished to attend the political meeting at the Whather Probabilities.—For this opera House and as no pressing business was before Council an early adjournment was had.

BOARD OF ALDERMEN.

The petition of Wm. A. Moore, asking permission to replace a shingle roof on his residence, which was recently damaged by the storm, and the conof his many friends here.

R. McCrary, formerly of this now of Atlanta, Ga., is here on the thing of the lower board in referring the petition of S. H. Lunt, who asked permission to lay a sewer from his property on Union street to the river, to the committee on streets, was the only business transacted in the Board of Aldermen last evening.

COMMON COUNCIL.

The Common Council was not called to order till 8 o'clock and then only eight memb is were present, while there was not a single spectator without the bar.

Mr. Strider: As a quorum is not present I move to adjourn till the next regular meeting.

This was agreed to and Mr. Strider was requested to notify the Board of Aldermen that the Common Council was without a quorum and was ready to adjourn. Just then, however, two other members made their appearance, making a quorum, and Mr. Strider returned from he Aldermen saying that that body had acted upon a petition of Mr. W. A. Moore, granting him permission to re-spingle the roof of his residence on Prince street, which had been damaged by the recent storm. In the meantime the minutes had been read, after which the action of the Aldermen upon Mr. Moore's petition was concurel in, and a petition of Mr. S. H. Lunt for permission to run a sewer committee on streets.

Council then adjourned. Before A as an argunization into the all the members had left the chamber Mr. E. S. Leadbeater appeared without the bar to address Council in reference to the purchase of another fire engine, but Council had adjourned.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL

NEW YORK, Oct. 28. -Trading at the Stock Exchange during the first hour of business was light and the course of prices very irregu-lar. At the opening the tendency was up-ward, but sub-equently owing to fears of tight money and sales for both accounts the entire list declined. At 11 c-clock the market was weak in tone. Money advanced to 12 per cent, near midday and this led to liquidation all along the line.
